

ELEMENTS OF A TRAINING PROGRAM

Relationship Building

- Bonding
- Positive interactions
- Games and Play
- Personal play
- Quality time
- Exercise
- Training time
- Socialization

Motivating

- Ball
- Tug
- Other Toys
- Food
- Personal play
- Opportunity to work
- Access to helper
- Innate behaviors such as barking, biting

Teaching

- Right environment
- Motivation
- Focus and engagement
- Capturing behavior
- Marking and Rewarding
- Shaping and Luring
- Splitting
- Backchaining, chaining behaviors
- Proofing
- Correcting behaviors

Scaffolding

- Solid foundation
- Increasing criteria and precision
- Increasing duration
- Building on foundation
- Behavior chains

Sequencing

- Order to teach exercises
- Order to build upon foundation
- When to chain exercises together
- When to begin proofing, adding distractions

Assessing

- Proofing behavior
- Changing the environment
- Creating the trial picture
- Trial day

Maintaining

- Relationship
- Trained behaviors
- Behavior chains and individual components
- Condition
- Enthusiasm and drive